Plattsburgh in Our Time

That building at the head of Court Street set against the blue sky—surrounded by the spreading green campus? Why, that's the Plattsburgh State Teachers College. No, it hasn't been a college long—April 13, 1942, the Feinberg bill was passed—P. S. N. S. became a college! That certainly was a great day—the end of classes—speeches—snake dances through the town. Memories that will always live on.

Yes, the building itself is one of the newest in the State. Fire completely destroyed the old building in '29. From its ashes arose the present structure—bigger and better—a new start towards the realization of hopes and dreams. And tomorrow?—That will bring more tangible evidence and further proof that we are ever growing—culminating with achievement of the goals toward which our leaders are striving. Already blueprints have been approved for a beautiful new home economics building—situated at the southwest corner of the campus. But that's not all—plans are also under discussion for a residence hall—a technological institute—a home management house . . . Plattsburgh of the future!

The tower? We always think of that as a symbol of strength holding all the traditions of the college. Spiraling ever heavenward, it has sheltered all—the power of aspiration is in its soul.

You see, Plattsburgh is more than just a college—a place of higher learning—it's imbued with the spirit that goes with youth—the hope, the dream, the expectation—the courage to challenge life.

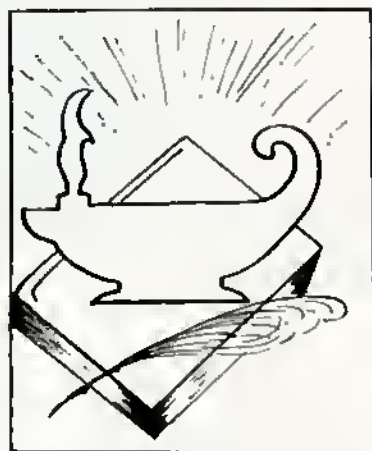

Can we face reality, you ask? These war years have brought many changes and new ideas to P. S. T. C. While watching history whisk past, we have not been idle. Amidst confusion, chaos, and a bewildered world, we—as one small part—have contributed to the preservation of our democratic way of living.

First, our boys—it was the War Curriculum which established the foundation that better enabled them to give their best. Then, our girls—the establishment of the United States Cadet Nurse Corps in '43 was proof we hearkened to the call for nurses. Already some have left the campus—joining various affiliated hospitals to further their training.—Foresceing the need for teachers, we followed the precedent—all over the country—beginning an accelerated course by which students might be graduated in three years—rather than the usual four—if they so chose.

And then, our other efforts—the college as a whole volunteered—because of the man-power shortage—to help save the large apple crop at the Chazy Orchards. This became one of our proudest war-time traditions. Each September—for the past three years—we have taken time out from classes. Faded dungarees—gay bandanas—plaid wool shirts—buses cchoing the strains of “one fish ball”—enthusiasm that does a job and caps weariness with satisfaction—that’s the way it has been.

Red Cross work—the Mobile Blood Bank, War Fund, rolling bandages—War Bond drives, selling War Stamps, nightly epistles . . . together they mean something.

Therein is the idea of what our college means to us. It is up to you to carry on—for only what “YOU” put into Plattsburgh will be the Plattsburgh which lives on.

Dedication

Education — an age-old institution — key to understanding of the outer and the inner world. Education establishing principles of approach to no specific problem, and yet to every problem . . . residing not in book knowledge alone — rather in development of all faculties of each precious individual — education — emotional, social, physical, as well as intellectual —

Education integrating our America — enlightening self and society . . . one answer to life's crying needs —

. . . Education—means to an end, not an end in itself — more than a parchment marked with a B.S. degree — a key, not an ornament — with which treasure doors open —

To that — so understood — we offer our Book — and, with the Book, our heads, our hands, and, most of all, our hearts.

Dr. and Mrs. Redcay and Chico

Our Triumvirate of Advisers

Doc, Mary Jane and Chico

Who accepted the responsibility of making the class of '46 one of which P. S. T. C. could be proud?

Doc, who helped put the goals of the class before us and played an important part in formulating our democratic philosophy—to bring us together for one purpose—to dedicate ourselves to our college and our profession.

Mary Jane, who brought us together in an informal social way, so that we might know better our classmates and advisers.

And Chico—observing us from his vantage point—giving us something to look up to.

All three our inspiration.

Dr. Charles C. Ward

Whose aspirations become realities in the College he serves

Through the record of our past and the interpretation of our present, the Class of 1946, the first class admitted after Plattsburgh attained full college status, has envisioned the Plattsburgh State Teachers College of tomorrow.

The years of our history show an ever expanding service to the children of the State, an ever increasing awareness of the challenge which our college will accept. In this Yearbook of 1945 is evidenced the full realization that the present tragic years create a great moment in history, a time when men and women everywhere dream of a world of justice and of peace. With historic perspective, the CARDINAL revives the years that have gone and with vision proposes, through the larger contribution of our college, an ever greater acceptance of our part in the creation of a better world.

That the staff of the CARDINAL and all those who have assisted in its preparation and publication have had this sense of history, this awareness of things to come, and in addition a deep desire for our college to give to the utmost is a tribute to them and to all of us.

We congratulate the Class of '46 for the history and the inspiration of the 1945 CARDINAL.

BOOK I CLASSES

Class of

Juniors at last—too old for Freshman hats but too young for cap and gown—truly upperclassmen (an enviable position?)—so it went as we returned to P. S. T. C. for our third year.

Seeing the many familiar faces (and those strange and new) made us stop a moment to glance back at our first two years sheltered by the towers of the College.

We were a "first" class—first college class to enter—first to initiate the War Curriculum, with a class of over seventy boys—a chance to boast the largest class thus far.

The Freshman Hop, in keeping with Army, Navy and Marine reservists, with silhouettes and military atmosphere, proved our class to be strictly war-minded. Cooperation among classmates was shown at our first All-College Supper—the boys arranged tables and the girls, whether Home Ec. or Elementary, obtained experience juggling trays. Class Day proved to be something worth waiting for—wands of blue and gold proclaimed us "silly" Frosh about to become "sophisticated" Sophs—the rest of the College heard our song for the first time.

The beginning of our Sophomore year found us eager to return to our Alma Mater—and just a little more secure than one year before. It was now our turn to haze the Freshmen—seemed wonderful to supervise dandelion digging, serenading, learning of rules—to have doors opened for us and to wield the gavel at court—St. Valentine's Tea at the Red-cays—all red and white—lost most of the men of the class to the Armed Forces. With the exception of the College Door Canteen, so aptly presented by the faculty, social activities became sparse—that is, until March 6, when the Navy invaded the town and changed Plattsburgh Barracks to Camp MacDonough. First, dances with bell-bottoms; then, with Midshipmen, and then, with Ensigns. Life was interesting once more—evening clothes were unpacked from moth balls for the first formal of the year, the Sophomore Soiree. Our theme this time was a spring garden with its wishing well, rambling roses and trellised archways. But all our activities weren't on the social side. Amidst dates and phone calls, studies took their toll.

And now we are Juniors! Proud of the responsibilities and obligations that are ours at last. A year filled with hard work—interspersed with good times. Farewell to the Navy and welcome Air Corps and Plattsburgh Barracks once more. December brought snow and the Yuletide spirit—Christmas Tea at the Redcays', Vesper Service and Carols, Christmas Cantata—Off for Christmas recess—time flies and we with it.

Cramming, exams, report cards (oh, dear) and a new term.—Once again vows to work harder.

Spring and Junior Week—anticipated for three whole years. Cutting classes, Junior Banquet, Junior Picnic, crowning of queen—What fun! We rule the roost! And then back to dignified Juniors—almost Seniors.

*"To live in the hearts we leave behind---
Is not to die"*

Pvt. Gordon Chapman was the first member of the Plattsburgh State Teachers College to give his life for his country. A former student at Syracuse University, Gordon transferred to P. S. T. C. in 1942 as a member of the War Curriculum. He was called into service in the early part of '43 and gave his life on the Anzio Beachhead on March 28, 1944, during one of the first Allied invasions. His interest in sports and hearty good-fellowship will always be remembered by all who knew him.

Was it possible? At long last—Seniority rights and privileges—the final stages of preparation before we should be on “our own.” A mingling sensation of feelings—four years to look back on—years of fun, hard work (!), trepidations, and triumphs—good years—all of them—we’ll miss these now familiar surroundings—yet—wasn’t this what we’d been striving for?

Tompkins, Frazier, Burns, Crosby

Not so long ago we had been considered frivolous Freshmen—we had felt so silly scurrying about under those little red and white caps!—Our first “big” event—Freshman Hop—(we had men then, too!)—What excitement when we became a college—the last class ever to enter the old Normal!!—

Supercilious Sophomores, we bore down on the poor, innocent, little Frosh—our men took a beating, though—a little out-numbered—they were thoroughly dunked in yonder pond during the traditional “tug-of-war”—By the time we grew up to join the upper strata—in a word—Juniors—most of the fellows of our class had left to do their part in serving Uncle Sam—

—Over these four years—a multitude of vacillating ideas and attitudes—combined to help form our final working philosophies of teaching and living.

—It’s the little things we’ll remember—the ruby stone on a well-poised hand, merry chatter over a teacup, the deep insight of a friend’s understanding — through uncertain years that lie ahead, they will be symbols—inspiring us toward confidence, courage and ever higher learning.

Class of 1947

Only a year from Frosh—yet veterans of the College. They have proved their right to be upperclassmen. The Sophomore-Freshman party entertained over 280 in a memorable gala affair. The cup was very sweet that first week but soon turned to gall as the poor innocent Frosh found out what they had to contend with. But 'twas all in fun—and really showed the good sportsmanship of both classes.

They lost two former class officers—Claudine Tobin replaced Priscilla (Diz) Armstrong, who had answered the cry for president last year. Roma Mikus replaced Dorothy Dana as secretary.

Theirs was the dance with Camp MacDonough—the gym camouflaged with evergreens—Snow's orchestra. It was informal—but one of the most successful dances on record.

"Sophmoronity"—they often call it—intangible people, these would-be Juniors. Almost halfway through P. S. T. C.—two more years to make as memorable and satisfying as the days they have already spent inside the ivy-covered walls.

Friendship is the keynote of the Class of 1947. We can truly say—"All hail, '47!"

Class of 1948

Freshmen — a record breaking group of 212! Leaving home towns and families for the first time—from high school to college in one big step. Plattsburgh—the first lonely and strange night in a new environment —There was registration—it seems as though there were scores and scores of cards, blanks, and questionnaires to be filled out. Meeting upperclassmen for the first time—being shown around P. S. T. C. by their sophomore sisters (and brothers?)—"Say, where's the north bulletin board?" "How do you get to the girls' locker room?"

Then the traditional red and white Freshman caps and handbooks—and, ah, something new has been added—the bibs with name, address, and phone number printed on with bright red nail polish—Picturesque?

Very much so. Only two weeks—and short ones thanks to apple-picking—of initiation this year. "Wipe that grin off—and sing the first two verses of The Alma Mater—" The Freshman dungaree ball—a truly original idea that took the College by storm.

They finally started to settle down and study. Along came Thanksgiving vacation and homeward bound—Remembering every detail in glowing accounts of college life at Plattsburgh.

In December they saw for the first time the impressive and beautiful Nativity Pageant. Then vacation—longer and better.

January was a month of mid-years—Cramming—Report cards (remember THAT day!) Naomi Venable elected president.

Smooth working and efficiently organized committees—making the class of '48 another memorable class. Truly a class to be proud of. They now stand ready to welcome the class of 1949. They will in their years at P. S. T. C. prove to the College that their individuality and friendliness make them a class we can never forget.

Corps

The Maltese Cross is marching again,
To answer the call, a new crusade,
We give our care to valorous men,
To heroes and all who need our aid,
Cadets in gray are here to carry along
The valiant fight to keep America strong.

Chorus

We're the cadets, we're in the corps,
Doing our part to help the nation win the war,
Doing the job we're chosen for,
United States Cadet Nurse Corps,
Working together day and night,
Guarding our country's strength and might;
From coast to coast we'll sing a toast,
Student nurses of the corps.

We serve our land with mind and hand;
Our pledge we give to help preserve
A world where free men live;
Our lamps we light; our hearts unite
From shore to shore.
Hail, Cadet Nurse Corps.

We're the cadets, we're in the corps,
Doing our part to help the nation win the war,
Doing the job we're chosen for,
United States Cadet Nurse Corps,
Working together day and night,
Guarding our country's strength and might;
From coast to coast we'll sing a toast;
Student nurses, serve our land
With heart and hand, from shore to shore.
Hail, Cadet Nurse Corps.

Once known as the Student Congress—this group was organized at the same time as the House of Delegates—acting as the executive body. At first the Council was composed of the officers of the House—acting in the same capacity—and members of the three standing committees. With the increase of activities and enlargement of committees—including some students not members of student government—membership was decreased to include only officers and chairmen of the committees. Thus we now have a small, efficient group—meeting twice a month—which initiates and clears all problems arising in the college—before they are sent to the House to be acted upon.

They govern the college—and aptly so. Yes, and they have been at it for quite a while—no wonder they are so efficient! Beginning ten years ago—the aim of the House was to give future teachers an understanding of—and participation in—democratic living. Functioning at first merely with terms of agreement—to enable the group to work freely and recognize their needs—the House adopted a Constitution in 1940. Class representatives—faculty appointees—designated members of approved clubs and organizations—answer to roll call—providing the strongest students on campus with an opportunity to be in most responsible positions. Discussing problems of consideration which may become rules or regulations—this delegate body is indeed kept busy.

Interfrat first came into existence in 1930. Its purpose is to guide the frats of the college—discuss problems confronting them—and keep the frats congenial. Three members from each of the three fraternities comprise the membership. Again this year a social Coffee Hour was held at the end of rush season rather than the traditional Interfrat dance.

Women's Residence Board

Almost as new as the college, as such—known as House Presidents' Groups before year '41-'42—organized as Women's Residence Board at this time (for lack of sufficient men)—no constitution—takes up problems—one representative from each house.

What problems?—Junior housing requests for modification of house rules—keeping houses (and students) on even keel—latest modification, 10:30 Sundays, going into effect in '43-'44.

Northern Light

"Get that story before Monday — that's the Deadline!" — their lives aren't run by the clock — but by meeting "deadlines" — that last minute rush — sighs of relief when the paper's finally off to press . . . Organized in '41 as The Experiment, the Northern Light has served as an outlet for expression of student opinion and journalistic talent — more than that, it has helped promote college spirit. How? — By making the student more aware of the part he (or should we say "she" now?) plays in schools and campus activities . . . The Light is a bi-weekly publication. This January, its staff scooped up an All-Alumni Issue — mailed it to over 2,000 grads! — And P. S. T. C.'s men and women in service aren't neglected — they still continue to receive each copy of ye olde Northern Light.

So rare are towers now, I treasure this
Like a last farewell; and it is farewell
To more than a type of edifice.
This is the dirge of dreams, the sky-lark's knell.
Aye, structures are low-slung now, near the ground
Far from heaven's thunder—yer I feel
Some heartless architect has cruelly bound
His art's Prometheus. For towers steal
Celestial fire and kindle thar desire
To soar above the crowd, to dwell apart.
But now star roofs scornfully inquire
Who builds a tower but a lonely heart?
I never pass this tower but I smile
To think the builder lonely all the while.

—From the Tower.

Athletic Board

In September of 1942, Dr. Redeay, Miss Baekus and Mr. Wiley realized the necessity of having an Athletic Board. This Board is for the purpose of bettering intramural sports for Plattsburgh State Teachers College. A representative from each class was elected and the Athletic Board began functioning in that month. The Athletic Board meets every spring to plan intramural sports for the following year.

To encourage more participation in girls' athletics, the Athletic Board arranged a system of awards which will replace the previous letter system and thus provide a greater challenge and incentive.

To win an award, students must meet the requirements in at least one of the four team sports and at least one of the individual sports. Students must be named on at least one of the honor teams chosen by the Physical Education Instructors.

Awards: First year—Class Numerals; Second year—6-inch Chenille School Letter; Third year—College Athletic Pin; Fourth year—College Athletic Medal.

Volleyball

Volleyball proved to be a great attraction last fall with the four classes entering enthusiastically into exciting competition. Honor teams were formed for the first time this year, composed of the twenty girls who displayed the greatest amount of skill during the interclass games.

Badminton

Many students participate actively in sports throughout the year. Badminton is both an outdoor and an indoor sport featured at P. S. T. C. Practice for the annual tournament affords pleasurable exercise as well as a competitive spirit.

Calisthenics

Up-down! Follow-me! In-time! One-two! Three-four! P. S. T. C. students are keeping their health (and figures) the hard way. Exercise and calisthenics play a predominant part in the curriculum under the course entitled Physical Education Activities.

Field Hockey

Field Hockey—Rapidly becoming a must on the sports calendar of P. S. T. C. Spring and fall, these shin-guarded creatures swing mean clubs, yet are replete with the good sportsmanship that we invariably find in 'the other gender in sports.'

Skiing

Snowy slopes and nippy air led our outdoor girls to don their ski suits—grab their skis—and rush out to Conway's several times this winter. Some co-eds have reported that it is a painful art to acquire—but many have advanced from the rudiments to the mastery of this intriguing sport.

Tumbling

Tumbling is one of the newer activities featured on our campus list. It's exercise, fun and sport executed through a series of forward rolls, hand stands, flips and dives. Of course they're a little stiff afterward, but no one is surprised. These co-eds earn their letters the hard way—and wear them proudly.

Tennis

Tennis holds a place of esteem in the sports world at P. S. T. C. Every spring the courts are dotted with young hopefuls swinging at the elusive white pellet as it goes whizzing past. But—who knows?—Perhaps our annual spring tournaments will produce a future Alice Marble.

Soft Ball

Yes, you've guessed it! The College has gone all out for softball again this year. Slinging bats with the best of them—sliding along in the mud—pitching like veterans—all goes to show that they aren't sissies . . . And from present indications, it looks as though this session will surpass all previous ones in the softball field.

Archery

Arrows are again darting across the campus at P. S. T. C. as the girls strive for proficiency in one of the oldest and most renowned sports of all time. The participants find it anything but dull. After all, Robin Hood found it exciting.

Basketball

On October 30, 105, at Oberlin College, the first Yale vs. Princeton game was played. In the spring of 1939, Miss Backus introduced the competitive game to Plattsburgh State Teachers College. Since that time, the game has been an annual event, played after interclass basketball season. The sixteen outstanding players from the interclass games are chosen by Miss Backus to represent Yale and Princeton.

Sororities

One of the centers of social interest since the beginning of the century has been our sororities.

Networks of each sorority have grown up all over the state, giving a connecting link among the state colleges. Before the war, convocations were held, drawing us even nearer together.

Now that this is impossible, our interest is quickened by the spirit of rivalry among the different sororities. Yet, harmony reigns through the efforts of the Inter-Frat Council.

Rushing, dances, "Hell Week," banquets and informal get-togethers all form an important part of our college life.

Clios all—the true meaning of the word friendship. Outfitted in yellow blazers and white caps, these girls are well known about the campus. Originating as a literary society at the Geneva State Normal School in 1872—a chapter was formed in Plattsburgh in '92. There are seven active chapters now—keeping in contact by means of the "Clio Daisy." One of the oldest sororities—the Delta Chapter has added another memorable year to its history. Traditional cider and doughnuts for all frosh—Beachcombers' Party—fun, food and friendly informality for all pledges—cooperation with Interfrat Coffee Hour. Then it was Clio Day—"Chung-Hwa Ming-Chu" presented in assembly—endless rushing for last minute preparations—stage fright—a Chinese tea and exhibit in the afternoon—a requested repeat performance for the A. A. U. W. Pledge time—Pledge Banquet and twenty-three timid pledges to guide through Hell Week. Formal initiation—the pledges forgiving us our cruelties (?) and becoming our sisters. The Senior Breakfast—next on our calendar—reminiscing and sad farewell—farewells to friends—fun and sorority life for another year.

The keynote of Alpha Delta Sorority has always been friendliness. This, blended with leadership, knowledge and wisdom, has helped in no small way to make the A.D.'s what they are.

Theta Chapter of Alpha Delta was established not quite a quarter of a century ago with about twenty-five members. First meetings were held at the Young Woman's League on Broad Street.

Now back to the present. "Coke-tails," served in the traditional Alpha Delta style, offered a welcome introduction to the scads of new faces—members of the Class '48. Again, members of the Frosh class, as celebrities, were greeted at the A.D. Dude Ranch for the Rush Party—the sleigh ride, Life photographer, games, entertainment, climaxed by pancakes and sausage in the Western way—dessert with Miss Backus as hostess—assembly and "Emanon," which proved to be a quiz program. Gaiety and seriousness hand in hand all year. Evening gowns, flowers, food, solemnity, a few tears and hearts that felt so good at the Pledge Banquet. Then—ugh—the pledges and Hell Week—need more be said? Formal initiation and beauty and simplicity. A look to the future and the Farewell Banquet to the Seniors and another happy year—to enrich our lives.

Pals together in Alpha Kappa Phi! Grand Chapter formed in 1892—later the same year the Delta Chapter at Plattsburgh was formed. Now we leave one more fun packed year behind—with the Agonian Hour for the Frosh—then the celebration of the first anniversary of the Agonian Room for a rush party—helped willingly with the Interfraternity Coffee Hour—reluctantly said good-bye to Miss Sullivan as adviser and welcomed Miss Kelly in her place—then Pledge Banquet at the Hotel Witherill with pledging at midnight in the beautiful Agonian tradition—'midst horrors, fears, and laughs, Hell Week proving the pledges' characters—sisterhood given in return—a year of sparkling Agonian memories terminates at the Farewell Banquet in June.

"All the world's a stage; and all the men and women merely players—," only in this case, it's just women!

Dramatics—one of our oldest activities on campus—continuing to give able performances, regardless of any man-power shortage—The Lamron Club was initiated in '32 under Mr. Hartman's supervision. Ten years later, the members changed its name to Footlights Club when "Normal" became "College." Last year, the system originated of awarding pins to Thespians active two years or more. Annually, Footlights Club presents a one-act drama—supervises production of the Christmas Pageant. Among the successes of the Club are "The Tenth Word," "Saturday's Children," "The White Iris," "Brief Music," "Faces of Deka," and "Cry Havoc."

Choric Speech Club

A third successful year for the Verse Speaking Choir—organized in the 1942-43 school year. Its purpose two-fold—to increase appreciation of poetry through interpretation—to improve voice and diction of its white-robed members. Passed before the college review in Assembly, Music Week, Christmas Week activities, and the All-College supper.

Parnassian Club

The purpose of the Parnassian Club?—To provide the Club and College with an opportunity to have leisure reading material at their fingertips. Frequently it is on display in the Browsing Corner.

Other activities?—Going to the movies together to see a movie made from a book—giving book reviews.

Our motto?—Simply expressed!—To us Reading is fun.

"—This is my country, to have and to hold—" . . . sustained enthusiasm and interest deriving pleasure and cultural value from vocal ability—maintaining a high musical standing throughout its long existence.

Since 1925 music loving students have gathered to give expression to the melodies well known and loved. With Miss Marion Jordalen directing, enrollment has attained a high peak this year—some seventy-six girls give voice to song. We heard their melodious voices at the Vesper service—Children's Program—Christmas Pageant—Music Week and Commencement.

The Club was started in 1935 by Dr. Rusterholtz and a P. S. T. C. student. What fun peering through the telescope at the tiny dancing stars—so far above us—can't quite decide if that is Cassiopeia or—what were all those others? Always seems to be something new to be found.

About 1939, light housekeepers organized Supper Club with Miss Park as adviser—met once a month for supper and a good time. In the same year started the All-College Supper in honor of the basketball players—became traditional Supper Club hosts and hostesses—informal get-together—one chance a year for all the students to eat together. Now All-College Supper includes other activities as well as basketball.

Last year Supper Club members ate meals of foreign dishes—this year Supper Club came home, foreign influence on American Cookery.

Contemporary Problems Forum

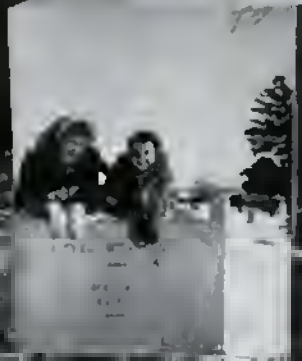

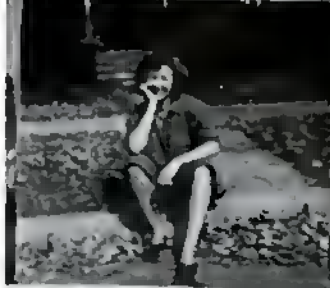

Contemporary Affairs Forum began five years ago—no set membership—monthly meetings conducted by student committees—Heated discussions—varied opinions—and a better understanding of the problems of a chaotic world—Thanks to the direction of Dr. Diebolt, Dr. Chaconas, and Mr. Charles Smith.
